GOLF HAS BEEN ADDED TO WOES OF MANAGER HUGGINS. Now it seems that golf has been added to the troubles of Manager Miller Huggins of the Yankees. Huggins has had one sweet time handling his temperamental athletes without having a new evil present itself to stir up

It is said that golf was the indirect cause of the controversy between Pitcher Mays and Manager Huggins, which ended by Huggins plastering a fine of $200 on his star pitcher. It seems that about a dozen of the Yankee players are devotees of golf, among them being Ruth, Hoyt, Mays and Schang. Some of the baseball experts with the Yankees claim that the team has paid more attention to golf than baseball on the spring training trip.

The story goes that Huggins has requested his pitchers not to play golf on the days they are to pitch. After advising Mays that he was to pitch a certain exhibition game against Brooklyn, Mays is said to have played 18 holes of golf.

That afternoon Mays was hit hard by Brooklyn and taken out of the box by . Huggins. Mays resented his removal from the game and to prove it threw the ball All of which makes it seem that golf isn't the best thing in the world
